My dear John,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 10th.instant informing me of your present commitment to Tamworth and outlining a suggested programme regarding your future for 1988. Many thanks for these.

As regards your future and suggested programme I intend, before a final decision is made,to seek the consideration and advice of the Council of Consultors on it all at their next meeting on Monday, 28th.March.

Hence, John, please make no definite plans yourself until informed of the outcome of that meeting after that date.

Begging God's Blessing on you always.

Yours sincerely in Our Lord,
