Merrylands

25 February, 1992

Most Rev. Kevin Manning,
Bishop of Armidale,
P.O. Box 93,
ARMIDALE, N.S.W., 2350.

Dear Bishop Manning,

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of 17 February 1992, and I thank you for it.

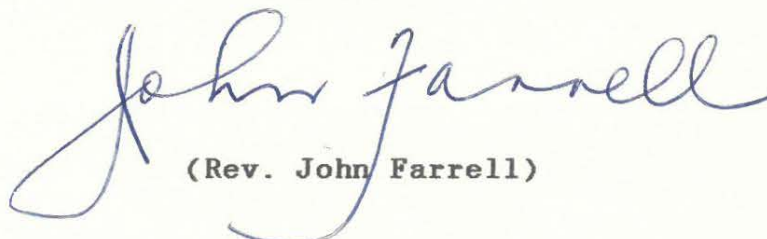

As mentioned during my recent phone call to you, I have made arrangements with the Armidale Diocesan Investment Group to transfer money from an investment of mine into my Priests' Car Fund account. That deposit will bring my account up to date. I have asked the Secretary to send me a statement of the transaction, via the Chancery, in order that you will see that the repayments have been brought up to date.

When I see Dr Alex Blaszczynski in March, I will ask him to send you an outline of his programme for me.

I enclose a print of the photograph that was taken when you had afternoon tea with my parents. I look forward to seeing you in Armidale after Easter. I will bring with me a copy of my Masters Thesis, for deposit in the Armidale Diocesan Archives.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

(Rev. John Farrell)
