

CONVERSATION WITH PROFESSOR BRAZINSKI - 15/4/92

With a view to seeking a Bishop who would be prepared to give Father John Farrell a chance in his Diocese, I spoke with Professor Brazinski whose advice to me concerning Father Farrell was:

He needs to be kept away from children where he is at risk and the area of his work needs to be limited to adults. However, controlling him would be very difficult and he remains a potential risk. Pre-pubescent children are in danger where he is.

Father John Farrell has a need for intense intimacy and relationship. He is making a genuine effort but is in danger with a precocious child. A position with the army could be an option.
