Dear Sir,

At Narrabri Local Court on 18th February, 1988 the presiding magistrate dismissed eleven charges brought against you alleging sexual assault upon a person under the age of sixteen years.

Please take notice that the matter has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions for consideration as to whether or not the prosecution should be continued before a Judge and jury in the District Court.

You will be advised of the Director's decision as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,

 H. Hamilton
Solicitor for Public Prosecutions
