Dear John,

Bishop Heather has advised me that he has withdrawn your mandate to exercise ministry in the Diocese of Parramatta. In the light of this I express my concern about your suitability for an appointment at this time. I wish to consider the position very carefully in regard to the question of a future appointment for you.

Until you return from your holidays and meet with me to discuss the whole matter, I am withdrawing your faculties. That means that you are not permitted to exercise any public ministry anywhere.

I expect you to make contact with me for an appointment to discuss all this within a week of your return from vacation.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

+ K.M. Manning
