a panel of canonists had been requested to draw up or questionnaire on these two matters that might be used to ascertain views of priests and people if Bishops so desired in their diocese.

After lengthy discussion on both points it was decided that copies of both questionnaires be circulated to the clergy suggesting they may care to consult certain parish groups and parishioners - certainly not a fully parish survey - on these issues and present any feed-back at the next Clergy Conference when it could be decided if a complete and detailed survey be undertaken with a view to conveying the result through the Bishop to the Australian Episcopal Conference.
