Dear Mr Kohn,

Re: Parramatta Diocese/Father Cattell -ats-

REDACTED

Thank you for your letter of 6 August. I am pleased to hear that there are moves afoot regarding the above case. Please keep me informed of progress.

I did inform CCI officially of potential claims in regard to this case. What we were asked to do at that time was to write to Fr Peter Connors, of the Professional Standards Committee, and he was to hand on the information without names to the Board of Catholic Church Insurances. This I did, I think in 1994. Following the police raid on our offices shortly afterwards I took the precaution of destroying all papers of mine which could have been to the disadvantage of persons with whom I deal. Therefore I am not able to provide you with a copy of the information sent to Bishop Connors. I hope this will not prove a disadvantage.

With thanks and good wishes I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Beede v. Heather
