Spoke to Kevin Manning (rang me earlier at home). I advised him that, after speaking to John Farrell, I believe that he should be told to seek secular work outside the church for 3-5 years. During this time he should seek therapeutic treatment with a therapist of Manning's choice but at Farrell's cost. If at the end of this treatment some real admission of contention and maladjustment is made, then, only then would his role in the diocese of Amherst be considered.
