Dear Fr Lucas,
 Thank you for your responses to our earlier queries. Just a few further clarifications if you don't mind.
 At the September 3, 1992 meeting did John Farrell say anything that you felt should be reported to the police?
 Did you report anything he said to the police?
 Kind regards,
 Mary Ann

Dear Mary Ann,

John Farrell had been arrested and charged but the court dismissed the charge. There were subsequent rumours about his behaviour and his bishop had suspended him and wanted us to interview him to see if he should be allowed public ministry. We interviewed him and although he was not specific with respect to any admissions we formed a view that he should not be allowed public ministry. That advice was taken by his bishop and he was not given any ministry after that.

Dear Fr Lucas

Thank you very much for your response to our request for an interview.

As you are no doubt aware, we have since interviewed Cardinal George Pell who was unable to clarify some points and he suggested others more intimately involved with the issues at hand - such as yourself - might better assist us.

Since you have stated you are not prepared to be interviewed for our program, we would very much appreciate it if you would respond to the following questions –

Why was John Farrell called to a meeting with you and others on 3 September 1992?

Were any admissions made during that meeting?

What action was taken as a result of those admissions?

Kind regards

Mary Ann

Dear Mary Ann,

I apologise for being slow to reply but I have been interstate.

I would not available for such an interview as I am aware that you have approached others in the Church more senior than me.

With every good wish,

Dear Rev Lucas

I'm a producer with the ABC's 4 Corners program and am writing to request an interview with you. Over the last couple of months we've been researching and filming a story that looks at the Catholic Church's handling of sexual abuse cases since the establishment of Towards Healing and the Melbourne Response in 1996.

We would very much like to talk with you about the broad issues - the complexities of dealing with both the abuse victims and the perpetrators, and also more specifically about the case of John Farrell who we believe you, Rev Usher and Rev Peters met with on 3 September 1992 to discuss complaints made against him. We would like to understand what happened at the meeting and what action was taken.

We would be looking at filming an interview with you in the week of 11 June. Should you agree to an interview, we'd be happy to provide more detail re line of questioning.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Mary Ann
