14th January, 1991.

Most Rev. H.J. Kennedy,
Bishop of Armidale,
P.O. Box 93,
ARMIDALE, N.S.W., 2350.

My Lord,

Upon my return from Armidale, I received from the Bishop of Parramatta, a letter dated 9th January, appointing me Assistant Pastor to the Parish of Merrylands. His letter indicated that a copy would also be sent to you.

I have written to the Bishop of Parramatta, acknowledging receipt of his letter of appointment, and indicating to him that I am fully satisfied with my appointment to Merrylands. If the last few weeks are any standard by which to assess the future, then I believe that not only will I have a fruitful ministry here, but that it shall also be a most happy time.

Having received a letter of appointment, I therefore notify you of my change of address.

I was sorry to see you looking poorly. I hope that the pain in your leg has gone, and that you are on the mend.

I wish you every blessing for the New Year.

Yours sincerely,
