Dear Professor Makarov,

I am writing to advise that your salary will cease on the 5 November 2004. In the light of your current circumstance it is a condition of your employment that you have no contact with any children that are students of the Australian Institute of Music. This condition will remain in place until the conclusion of your trial and the Institute's investigation. If you violate this condition the Australian Institute of Music will take appropriate actions to effect your dismissal.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Calvo
