Mr. A Nisbett

REDACTED

Dear Adrian,

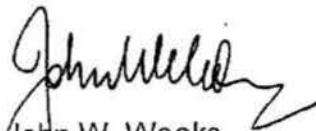

I trust the Long Service Leave is going well.

You will recall that on 8 June 2004, I wrote to you foreshadowing my restructure plans for the School's Pastoral Care Programme. Given your current position as Dean of Student Welfare it is important that I keep you in the information loop.

As I outlined in that letter the current position would be restructured and two positions developed. I have determined to press on with the changes immediately.

In brief, what this means is that the current position would become redundant and others established. Given such changes are planned would you please indicate to me whether you wish to discuss possible options or do you still, as indicated in June, think that you will take a redundancy.

Yours sincerely,

John W. Weeks
Headmaster
