Update... Bishop Richard is happy (as your Commissary) to grant permission for The Reverend Canon Campbell Brown to officiate at this this 1 service on Sunday 28 October 2007, provided that the necessary paperwork is completed next week and returned for your consideration.

I have drafted a letter to this effect and Bishop Richard is calling to sign the letter this afternoon.

I have also spoken to Fr Campbell and advised him of the decision and that I will email to him the letter as well as the relevant PTO forms for completion and return to the Diocesan office. Fr Campbell is actually listed as Retired Clergy with Permission to Officiate on our Diocesan Directory. He does hold PTO's in Bathurst and Grafton Diocese.

Karden will make a list of other clergy that also are listed in the Directory as Ret Clergy with PTO that she has doubts should be there for your decision as to whether they are sent the required forms or deleted from the list altogether.

Kind regards
 Lisa

Subject: Question??

Dear Bishop

We have today received a leave request for Fr Ian Howarth 23/10 - 2/11 and he has listed Canon Campbell Brown for Sunday Services, however it is noted that Fr Campbell does not have a licence. Paperwork in his file indicates that he was sent PTO forms for completion, 8/8 (no year, think could be 2006?).

Is it appropriate for me to phone Fr Ian to alert him to this fact so that he can ask another clergy to perform this service? (there is only the one Sunday service involved).

On the other hand, surely Fr Campbell would know he doesn't possess a PTO, so why has he agreed to take Sunday service??

Kind regards
 Lisa
