

I received a call from the Reverend Garth Hawkins today. He states that he does not want to alter the course of justice, but has been concerned all Easter about the mention of Phillip Aspinall's name in the most recent complaint.

Because of the trouble in Queensland and his (Hawkins) concern for "damage control for the church" he would, if possible, like to avoid Phillip Aspinall's name being mentioned.

I advised him that such decision was not mine, but that I would pass on his request to the Chair of the Tribunal.

I thanked him for this call and his concern.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'William Haas', with a stylized flourish at the end.
