

26 June 2008 DC Report

	The Diocesan Council also questioned: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clarification on the ownership of both the land and buildings • The Diocese's legal and ethical responsibilities if Scone became an independent school. • The legal ramifications to the Diocese if Scone continued to use the term "Anglican School". • The constitutional ramifications if SGS's proposal was accepted. Would an Ordinance be required? • Does Diocesan Council have the legal right to hand over church property? The Diocesan Business Manager to assure SGS that Diocesan Council was giving their request serious consideration, however due to the complexity and ramifications of the request, it was deemed essential that all aspects of the proposal be thoroughly investigated. The Diocesan Business Manager (Mr John Cleary) was to contact SGS and request in writing where the current Board of SGS stood in relation to the NASC. (Refer to previous DC meetings February 2008 and October 2007)
	(E)St John's College – Windup and merging of entities (Running Minute) The settlement date was to be the 2nd July 2008 and both the Audit Committee and Pricewaterhousecoopers (Auditors) had noted that there was merit in continuing to use the Morpeth College name. The Diocesan Business Manager was to report at the next meeting on the costs involved to retain the name or not.	Handout 2
	(F)Professional Standards Matters: Draft Model Ordinance (Mr Martin Rush) (I) Terms of Reference (Running Minute) (II) Review of Ordinance (Running Minute) Moved Mr Keith Allen Seconded the Archdeacon That the report be sent to the Standing Committee of General Synod. Further, that the Diocesan Business Manager forward this document with a covering letter. (The letter should note that the document was created by a member of Diocesan Council who is a Barrister for discussion at Diocesan Council.)	28-45
