

c c 18/11

Ian Barrack

Thursday, 16 May 2002

2015

CKR rang and spoke about Ian Barrack who had contacted her son, CKU via the email to keep a conversation going with him. CKU was at home, alone, as CKR was staying overnight in Forster. It disturbed CKU so much that he went to his girlfriend's home and discussed some issues with them.

Upon arriving home, CKR confronted CKU re his ongoing dilemma with Ian Barrack, whom he 'fears' in so many ways because of past issues. CKU had made contact with his sister and brother in law, the REDACTED Vic.

In the conversation, and relating to a direct question from CKR CKU admitted that Ian had oral sex with CKU when CKU was twelve. We had established that Ian would invite CKU to his home in St John's College on weekends, when REDACTED was away.

This takes the matter a step further, and CKR now wishes, with CKU's consent, to pursue the matter in some way.

I agreed to speak with Bishop Roger, on CKR and CKU behalf, to see where we would go from this point.

This has been of concern for CKR and CKU for some years: and Ian seems to make contact about every 10 months or so, from Sydney.

Fr Bruce Hoare
Archdeacon of Newcastle