

DIOCESE OF NEWCASTLECONFIDENTIAL

Name of
Candidate Ian Barrack

Parish Priest The Very Rev'd. G.R. Parish Christ Church Cathedral
Lawrence, Dean

Date of Assessment 3 July, 1990

1. Devotional Life - Ian is present for the Eucharist each Sunday without fail and as well as at Sunday Evensong. It is his normal pattern to be at the Eucharist two other days each week.
2. Parish Church involvement, including record of ministry as a layperson - Ian is the Cathedral's senior server and is this year also a member of the Cathedral Council.
3. Other Church involvement, including record of ministry as a layperson - He has from time to time assisted in organising activities for the parish youth. He is Secretary of the Guild of the Servants of the Sanctuary for the Newcastle and Lake Macquarie Deaneries.
4. Personality
Open and warm. Easy to talk to.
5. Ability to relate to a variety of other people
He finds it easy to relate to most people. He does have a good 'teaching' rapport with children.
6. Leadership and organisational capacity
Both these areas need to be developed.
7. Suitability for tertiary level studies
At present successful in his 2nd year at the University of Newcastle.
8. Areas in which he/she needs guidance
Ian needs to know when he should say 'no' to demands placed on him by others.
9. Recommendation (please tick)
 Definitely recommended
 Recommended with reservation
 Uncertain
 Probably not recommended at present
 Definitely not recommended

Reason: Overall, Ian is a well-rounded young man. I believe that the immaturity which is evident in some areas will develop given greater experience of life.
