

BISHOP OF THE ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF GRAFTON

19 March 2008

Mr Richard Campion

REDACTED

Dear Richard

I refer to your recent request for further counselling to be paid by the Diocese. Whilst I am confused by exactly how many sessions were used from the last extension of counselling, I am happy to authorise another six sessions.

Please use this letter as authority to your Counsellor to bill the Diocese for this work.

As has been stated previously, the Counselling paid for by the Church is not open ended. In view of the considerable amount already undertaken, I am asking our new Professional Standards Director, Mrs Ann Gleeson, to contact you directly to discuss counselling.

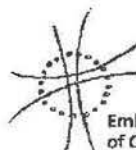

You have in other recent letters, raised a number of matters previously fully canvassed by your Solicitors. I am unable to see the benefit to you of further debate on these issues. Consequently, I will be passing all future correspondence from you to Mrs Gleeson.

Blessings.
