My head has bowed

(a) "without prejudice" letter to incorporate dot points from Prunski's letter dated 8 Dec.

(delete ~~second part of~~ #4)

#5 which we would acknowledge the rights of our clients to take legal action, ...
 (as before)

(b) Our clients suggest two alternative courses of action

(i) That our clients would be prepared to entertain immediate offers of settlement including the use of the following

courteously apology

payment of past & future medical expenses in relation to the subject matter of the claim reasonable legal costs

(ii) a further one & alternative proposal as follows

(a) (b) (c) (d) (e) (f)

In the event that your client is prepared to accept either of the above alternative proposals, your client (a) & (b) agree:
