I am the Chief Executive Officer of Anglicare SA and I am authorised to speak for and on behalf of the organisation

By referring to documents held by Anglicare, I am able to state that Anglicare took responsibility for a number of campsites in 1989. These campsites had previously been the responsibility of the Diocesan campsite committee.

The campsites that came under Anglicare's control at that time are as follows:

- Harrogate situated at Lot 4 The Glen Road, Harrogate, this site was sold on 24th November, ~~1999~~ ¹⁹⁹⁷ JWR
- Camp Gooden situated at Stock Road, Mylor, this site is currently under the control of Anglicare.
- St. Lukes situated at Railway Terrace, Port Elliott.
- The old Hoyleton Primary School, situated at Hoyleton, this site was sold in 1994

By referring to records held by Anglicare I am able to state that at the time that Anglicare took control of the camp sites that it also accepted responsibility for the employment of Robert Malcolm Brandenburg. Robert Brandenburg was an existing ^{of the Diocese} employee and records indicate that his employment commenced on 1st October 1981.

Whilst employed by Anglicare Robert's duties were as follows:

- Budget preparation and maintenance
- General supervision and coordination of the campsite caretakers
- Ongoing invoicing/bill paying for each site
- Quote and fee preparation
- Receiving and coordination of campsite bookings
- In conjunction with the campsite caretakers, ensure grounds and buildings are maintained.

Robert's employment with Anglicare ceased on 31st July 1998 due to his retirement.
