Dear Margaret

Thank you for your letter of 27 November and for keeping me up to date in relation to the Greg Knight case. I appreciated, too, receiving copies of the draft media material which has been prepared.

It seems to me your preparation has been thorough, however I draw to your attention the enclosed material prepared by Robert Cunningham regarding what may be said publicly and constraints around public statements in relation to charges of the sort in question. The material may need some revision in the light of that information.

In order that the person I use to provide strategic advice in these matters might also case her eye over what you have prepared, I wonder if you would mind forwarding an electronic version of the draft material.

Thank you for your careful attention to these matters and for the careful planning which you have undertaken. That will place us in a much better position to deal with these matters as they unfold.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely

The Most Reverend Dr Phillip Aspinall
Archbishop of Brisbane
