STUDENT COUNSELLOR

Applications are invited from experienced and qualified persons for the above position on the staff of this Anglican Boys' Day School in the northern suburbs of Brisbane.

The appointee will be responsible for the provision of advice to staff and students in areas including identification and remediation of learning difficulties, career guidance, general student welfare, and other aspects of educational development. The appointee will also take charge of the School's Work Experience program.

The position will be available on a full-time basis from the start of the 1989 School year (January 23), but consideration may be given to proposals of alternative starting dates and for other than a full-time appointment.

Applicants should be eligible to be registered as teachers in Queensland. A commitment to the principles and practice of this independent Anglican School is essential, and the appointee will be expected to play a full part in the School's program.

Applications should contain an account of experience and relevant qualifications, and indicate the names and contact points of two professional referees. Applications should be marked "CONFIDENTIAL" and addressed to:

The Headmaster,
St Paul's School,
34 Strathpine Road,
BALD HILLS Q. 4036

Closing Date: November 4, 1988

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Headmaster's Secretary on (07) 261 1388.
