COURIER

Dear Mr Yorke,

CLAIM BY ^{BYB} - MR J L ELLIOTT

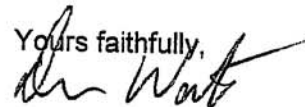

We confirm that this matter was settled at mediation on 1 August 2002 for $ REDACTED inclusive of costs with a contribution of $25,000.00 from the insurer.

The initial offer of settlement by the plaintiff was $ REDACTED for compensatory damages (after discounting) plus costs as well as $ REDACTED for exemplary damages. The claim for exemplary damages was based on a number of facts of which we had no previous knowledge. It was suggested by the plaintiff's representatives that four other staff members at ACGS were aware of Elliott's tendencies. We have requested details about that allegation from the plaintiff's solicitors.

We enclose a copy of the terms of settlement, the original deed of release signed by the plaintiff as well as a copy of the agreement between the Diocese and the insurer regarding its contribution.

We will obtain the necessary statutory clearances. In the meantime, would you please put us in funds to the sum of $ REDACTED

Yours faithfully,

David Watt, Partner
