Dear John

I write to acknowledge your letter of 24 July advising me of your intention to retire on Sunday 1 February 1998, and to thank you for the ministry you have exercised in the diocese over the past twelve years or so.

I note that you have made arrangements for your retirement to Burpengary and glad the ADIF has been able to assist. When the time draws near, you should contact Bernard Yorke's office so that they can make the necessary payment arrangements.

With every good wish to you and REDACTED

Yours sincerely

+ Peter Brisbane
