

charge of procuring a youth for sex.

I have really missed my participation in the sacraments especially knowing that I may never be able to celebrate again. The barrister advises the sentence will be around 5 to 7 years. That is one of the reasons we moved up here so that [REDACTED] will have friends close handy. We have a 6 months lease but the owner has placed the house on the market again.

It would appear I shall possibly face bankruptcy as the barrister says [REDACTED] [REDACTED] will probably sue for damages and we don't have any money.

Next appearance is on 19th November with the trial sometime in 2002.

Thank you again for your concern. I know you will also keep an eye on [REDACTED] My kind regards and God's blessing on your ministry.

Sincerely,
John G
