Dear John

I have received your letter of 6th November. I have now put it on our strictly confidential file. I note that you have decided to plead guilty to all charges but that you wish to have placed on record that you strenuously deny certain of those allegations made about you which have resulted in charges.

I am sad at the turn of events, John, but I can understand the reasoning of your Barrister, who will be well aware of how juries respond in these matters. I hope that you will be treated with mercy when the time comes.

I am always ready to help as best I can, and will certainly keep an eye on REDAC in the care of Christ.

I pray that our Lord may be your support and hope in the times ahead, especially next year when the trial takes place.

Yours in Christ

The Right Rev'd John Noble
