Out of love for my brother and his son, I ask for your help.

My nephew^{BYG} is a now an REDACTED with his wife REDACTED
 He is a wonderful young man whose life has been far from easy and he is estranged from both his mother REDACTED and father REDACTED my brother.

I believe you could help him with the damaging issues from his childhood in Hobart. He disclosed his tragedy to some very close friends and my sister and me a few years ago. He has not told REDACTED or his sister REDACTED

He knows you have seen the all the paperwork relating to his courageous action so long ago.

I believe it would help with his healing if you could acknowledge him by meeting with him, renewing your acquaintance, talking of the past and catching up with his successes.

Busy as you are, I hope you will make time for this.

I have not discussed approaching you with BYG and REDACTED

REDACTED

(REDACTED brought you to the REDACTED Centre where we met a few years back. I have worked there as a volunteer for 4 long years)
