27th of April, 1988.

Father G. Ridsdale,
Catholic Presbytery,
HORSHAM 3400.

Dear Father Ridsdale,

We have been instructed to act for Mrs BAE and her son BAF

Our clients allege that as a result of your misconduct in the 1970s, details of which you are fully aware, BAF has suffered substantial and lasting psychological effects.

Professional assistance has been obtained for BAF in relation to his behavioural problems which have not only resulted in criminal behaviour but also loss of employment and confusion in his own personal relationships.

The Professional guidance which has been provided to BAF and to the Courts links that disturbed behaviour to your misconduct.

Our instructions are to seek compensation for loss of employment, medical expenses which in the past have exceeded $1,600.00 and sufficient funds to cover future treatment by Mr. Jeffery Cummins a clinical psychologist.

BAE and her son estimate that the total cost for that future treatment and their past financial loss will total $15,000.00 at least.

Our instructions are therefore to seek that sum and failing a satisfactory response, we have instructions to institute proceedings.

Yours faithfully,
FURPHY, CROW & CRONIN
