Dear Fr Chris,

Further to your email yesterday, please see attached letter granting indemnity to the Diocese for this claim.

I confirm that the Diocese accepts JI's claim and does not wish to proceed with a Towards Healing Assessment. CCI supports the Diocese's decision.

I come from the contact report that JI has received a treatment over a long period of time and has battled bulimia since she was 14 years of age. It is apparent that JI is also currently receiving treatment. To fairly and justly consider JI's claim, a report on her current status and future treatment needs would be of great assistance. In an attempt to minimise the stress of the claim process, I would suggest that Pat Mullins raise with JI the possibility of obtaining a report from her treating psychologist/psychiatrist, I can draft the necessary letter of instruction to the psychologist/psychiatrist and CCI can attend to payment for the report. I would be grateful for the opportunity to hear your views on this suggestion.

I will let Pat Mullins know of CCI's interest in this claim. At this time, CCI will not appoint external lawyers. I will be able to attend to drafting relevant documents and attending the facilitation to assist the Diocese. CCI actively encourages claimant's to obtain legal advice, most particularly should the claim resolve in relation to the deed of release and Medicare requirements. CCI will pay the reasonable costs of such advice in addition to any agreed settlement sum. We can discuss this further as the claim progresses.

I note that JI is receiving current treatment, CCI is happy to pay for the reasonable costs of any additional counselling needs that JI may have to assist her through the Towards Healing claim process, I can communicate this to Pat Mullins.

I am in Sydney on Monday but happy for you to call the mobile. Otherwise I will give you a call on Tuesday.

Thank you for notifying CCI of this claim.

I hope you have a good weekend, Emma

Emma Fenby
