

NOTES OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH AFA

REDACTED

2ND AUGUST 2012

AFA Good day Peter how you're going

P: not bad how are you

AFA very well thank you very well

P: I was just ringing to see what happened with the you went to the police
I believe did you

AFA yes I did I did Peter yes

P: and what's happening

AFA um well I haven't heard from them for a while but what's happening is actually I can't speak at the moment just hang on I'm at work so just hang on I'll just a bit of a – ah yes I went to the police and made a statement

P: yes

AFA um then a guy contacted me and came and saw me one of the police officers a friend of mine actually had to give a statement as well to corroborate what I was saying

P: yes

AFA then they were going to arrange to interview Michael Glennon

P: I see

AFA and he had quite a few other people as well who had come forward and I think they were going to interview him not just about me but a number of other people and that's as much as I've heard so far

P: I see

AFA um

P: I just wanted for the record I just wanted to know what happened. How long ago was that

AFA um I suppose the last time I heard from the police it would probably be 3 or 4 months ago

P: yes I see and what they were the police at Essendon or

AFA um no he was based out actually near Lancefield because it was something to do cos most of the crimes had occurred out at

P: oh I see

AFA (inaudible) there so he was the local guy involved with investigating

P: Lancefield

AFA any sort of child matters

P: well thank you very much and how are you feeling yourself

AFA oh good good good yes very good I had a bit of hospitalisation last February for depression and stuff but I've picked up since then

P: oh good well

AFA (inaudible) at work

P: all the best to you

AFA yeah thanks Peter thank you very much

P: thank you AFA

AFA bye bye
