19 December 1996

Dear Mr. Foster,

I refer to our conversation of 17 December, and as arranged enclose herewith a copy of my appointment and the terms and conditions thereof, which I trust are self explanatory.

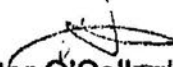

If you wish to discuss anything arising out of that document or indeed anything else, please do not hesitate to contact me. I confirm my undertaking that until you tell me otherwise, any discussions I have with you in relation to the relevant subject will remain confidential.

I am of course anxious to discover as much as I can in relation to the matters into which I am to enquire and report upon. I hope and intend that I can do this contemporaneously with providing appropriate assistance.

Whilst I will be away from the above office until early January, if you ring the above number it will be diverted to an answering service. Alternatively, if you wish feel free to ring me on ~~0389~~ 841249, and if I am not there I will get back to you.

Yours most sincerely,

Peter O'Callaghan Q.C.
