Dear [REDACTED]

I understand very well that these things are difficult and you should take as much time as you need.

As I have said to you, if you want to refer this matter to the police I urge you to do so. The head of the Victoria Police Sexual Crimes Squad is Detective Inspector Paul Binyon. His telephone number is 9611 8701 and his email address is paul.binyon@police.vic.gov.au

I confirm that if you wish to report the matter to the police, just let me know and I will suspend the Commission's enquiry until the police/court matters are resolved.

Yesterday I made a recommendation to the Archbishop that [REDACTED] be placed on administrative leave pending the resolution of this matter and today I have been informed that the Archbishop has accepted my recommendation and [REDACTED] has been placed on administrative leave as of today.

Andrew Woods, counsel assisting, will contact you shortly to talk through your decision etc.

Kind regards

Jeff Gleeson S.C.

Dear Jeff,

I was hoping that he would admit what he had done. I know I will have to face him but I feel like I will be on trial. I'll have to have a think about things.

Dear Jeff,

I am happy for the letter to be sent as emailed to me. The only thing that doesn't look right is on page 4 where it says, "Parade 6". I think that word may have been, "perhaps".

Other than that, please go ahead with sending that transcript & letter.

Dear Jeff,

I would prefer to have all correspondence sent by email. No need for hard copies to be sent in the mail.

I appreciate your time and effort. It's taken a long time to take this step.

With Regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to our conference on Friday. I have now received a typed copy of the transcript of that conference and I have prepared a letter to you which sets out a draft letter to the priest.

I am not sure whether you want to receive this by email as well as in the mail. Please let me know and, if so, I will email you the transcript and email immediately.

Kind regards

Jeff Gleeson S.C.
