

Dear John,

You seem to have misinterpreted my email of 27 June 2006. I did mention in the final sentence that I would ask Fr Comensoli to join us “during” our discussion.

I am intending to meet with you one-to-one on Wednesday, however, I shall invite Fr Comensoli to join us later in the discussion. He is the Diocesan Child Protection Delegate in terms of my responsibilities as Head of Agency under the legislation. As such, he has greater knowledge about the requirements of the Ombudsman’s Office that became law in NSW after you left for overseas. This would seem to be just to you.

Reciprocating your good wishes

Yours fraternally

Bishop Peter Ingham

29 June 2006