

ABM [REDACTED] saw +PW on her own behalf and on behalf of her husband [REDACTED]. They are parishioners of Dapto in the diocese of Wollongong. She wished to register her unease about Fr John Nestor and the possibility of his eventual pastoral appointment. Fr Nestor visited their home for dinner and she requested that he advise her son ABL [REDACTED], then in Year 11.

Five years ago ABL [REDACTED] accompanied Fr Nestor and several others on a camp near Victoria Pass. Upon their return on that Sunday evening Fr Nestor came to their home for tea.

During the meal ABL [REDACTED] reported that the group had swum together naked during the weekend. He also remarked that there had been a competition to identify the "hairiest arse" and the "biggest dick". Fr Nestor did not deny this revelation. Mr & ABM [REDACTED] expressed their discomfort and anger with this behaviour.

ABM [REDACTED] also discussed this incident with Fr Nestor in 1997. He replied that she was making too much of an incident that was simply a matter of the boys coming to grips with their sexuality. It was, in his estimation, an incident of little significance.
