PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION

QUESTIONING PROCESS

- The Diocese is very aware that the persons who agreed to participate in the Preliminary Investigation have been questioned on several previous occasions over a number of years.
- The Diocese is also aware that asking people to go through such questioning on a number of occasions is distressing.
- Fr Greg Homeming has been directed to:
 - i. have each respondent take an oath and complete the oath form;
 - ii. to read the appropriate statement(s) with each respondent, raising questions as he judged it necessary; and
 - iii. if the respondent had not amended the statement(s), to ask him to sign the form, "Sworn Testimony" or,
 - iv. if the respondent had amended the statement(s) or disagreed with it, to require him to indicate exactly what he had amended and exactly what he disagreed with.
- Fr Homeming will be given access to:
 - i. ABA [redacted]: Police statement and transcript of interview with Kamira Stacey Consulting;
 - ii. ABO [redacted]; transcript of interview with Kamira Stacey Consulting; and
 - iii. ABN [redacted]; transcript of interview with Kamira Stacey Consulting.
- Fr Homeming will be given these documents at the time of the interviews.
- Fr Homeming will not be given access to any other information either before or after the interviews.
