Rev J Nestor

REDACTED

Dear John

I have been in the Diocese for over nine months now. It has been, by any measure, a hectic beginning, though I am thankful for the welcome and support I have received.

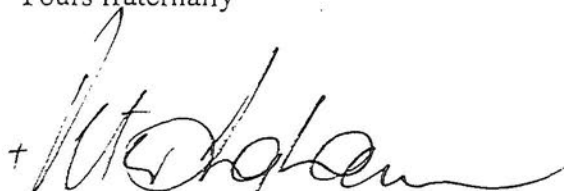

As the new Bishop of Wollongong, I am endeavouring to establish contact with all the priests of the Diocese, including those not presently living or working within the Diocese.

I am conscious that I have yet to be in contact with you. The most recent information I have as to where to contact you is a post office box number (where this letter has been sent) and a residential address in Wollongong.

However, it is my understanding that you may be presently living and exercising your priesthood (possibly as part of a university chaplaincy) in the United States of America.

Consequently, I would be grateful if you could write to me indicating your current place of residence and contact details, any priestly or other Church related work you may be engaged in, and your present circumstances.

Yours fraternally

Most Rev Peter W Ingham DD
BISHOP OF WOLLONGONG
