Dear Bishop Wilson,

I enclose a copy of a letter sent today to the Chancellor.

I request that you carry out the provisions of the Decree issued by the Congregation for Clergy over two weeks ago.

I regret that, in spite of my request of December 24th, 2000, that any public statement be discussed with me, I was approached yesterday by the Illawarra Mercury's Lisa Carty, who asked me to comment on an article she was preparing on the Decree, obviously with access to yourself. It was in this context that I issued a brief statement which steered attention away from those parts of the decree critical of your actions.

In the context that you have failed to communicate with me- either personally, by telephone or in writing- since the issuing of the Decree, it is regrettable that you once again deal with your priests through the pages of the Illawarra Mercury.

Yours sincerely in Our Lord,

Father J G Nestor.
