Your Excellency

Thank you for seeing me last week and for the discussion with yourself and Monsignor McDade. This case involving Fr John Nestor has been, and still continues to be, difficult and intractable.

I have considered our discussion carefully and pondered many ways of reaching a solution by compromise. Unfortunately, that kind of solution continues to elude me; so it seems that I now have to await the decision of the Congregation.

With every best wish and my thanks for all your help during our stay in Rome.

May the Lord bless you at Easter

Yours sincerely
