I am in NZ till Wed.

We have some additional material from Greg Walsh from Chute prosecution which Helen O brien is chasing. Some of it is unhelpful on the issue of "alleged" prior knowledge such as a psychiatric report where Koska says he tried to get help from an earlier Provincial.

Martin is sending you a note on some of the detail so we can decide over next day or so whether or not to hand it over to CCI.

My own feeling is that we have very little legal - moral choice but to hand it all over rather than cherry picking and if we end up having an argument with them so be it.

I dont think they will lightly deny insurance cover.

In any event I dont think we have an effective choice given that insurance contracts are contracts of utmost good faith we have a long and positive relationship with CCI and I think we will just have to let the cards fall where they will.

Have a look at Martins note and we can talk when convenient.

John Maguire was in good form at Greg Walshs wedding celebration on Saturday night.

I am on the mobile in NZ (I believe).
