ACE has been associated with the Marist Brothers through the Farmhouse at Mittagong. In particular she was friendly with Brother Kostka. She recalls that there were times when his approach to her was inappropriate although not at the most serious level.

Their relationship was largely a pastoral one bordering on forms of spiritual direction. Occasionally they would have afternoon tea together or go driving. During these times the conversation and some of his actions she considered inappropriate.

It is unclear whether ACE was an adult or a child at the time. Her relationship continued into adulthood.
