 Chancellor
 Brisbane Archdiocesan Chancery
 GPO Box 1291

Dear Father Spence

The Corporation of the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Brisbane -ats- Isaacs

There have been a few "issues" that have arisen in relation to the Release, Discharge and Indemnity. So that you may appreciate the present position, we enclose:-

1. Our fax to Cranston McEachern of 22 June 2001;
2. Their response of 22 June 2001;
3. Our letter (without enclosures) to CCI Limited of 25 June 2001;
4. Our letter to Cranston McEachern (on instructions from CCI) of 28 June 2001;
5. Our further to letter to CCI advising of our most recent discussion with Peter Deed suggesting that the matter is now to continue.

We suggest that we adopt a "wait and see" approach. Mrs Isaacs may well change her mind, but we will have to wait and see. In view of Mrs Isaacs' previous conduct, we obviously took particular care with the Release to ensure the matter was entirely "closed off".

Should you have any comments in the meantime, please let us know. In our discussions with Peter Deed, we made it clear that the issues arising in respect of the Deed did not originate from any instructions from the Church in Queensland, but rather were "interstate requirements".

Yours faithfully

Encl
