Dear Sirs

RE: Joan Isaacs v Trustees of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese & Anor

We have spoken to Mrs Isaacs concerning the amended Deed of Release and Discharge and the further amendments faxed to our office on 22 June 2001.

Our client's instructions are that she is prepared to sign the original Deed of Release which was forwarded to our office and was subject to your client's approval.

We believe that the alteration of the original Deed of Release has greatly upset our client emotionally and spiritually. She believes that the Church is continuing to delay and deny her justice in a legal and "pastoral" sense. Unless your client agrees to tender the original Deed of Release and Discharge, the settlement negotiations will come to an end. We do not believe it is in the interests of the Church or our client if this matter is prolonged. We believe that a gesture of good will and good faith from your client in allowing our client to execute the original Deed of Release and Discharge will finalise this matter.

We await your response.

Yours faithfully,
 CRANSTON McEACHERN
