Dear Sirs

RE: Joan Isaacs v the Corporation of the Trustees of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Brisbane

We refer to our letter of the 10th September 1999 and advise that paragraph 3 should read:

"It appears that Father Martin Doyle may have had inkling of Derriman's activities".

In the meantime, we are instructed by our client if a response is not received from you within seven (7) days concerning our client's claim for compensation, our client will take this matter up directly with the church and others as it appears that you, on your own admission in our conversation with you on the 14th September 1999, are having difficulty obtaining instructions.

We await your response.

Yours faithfully,
CRANSTON McEACHERN
