Dear Colleagues

Mr & Mrs Isaacs

We telephoned shortly before 5.00 p.m. this afternoon however Mr Deed had left the office for the day.

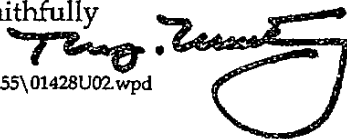

We have been using our best endeavours to be able to make cash settlement offer to bring this matter to a conclusion, noting that Mr and Mrs Isaacs are keen to "close the chapter" so to speak. It is in this light and in the spirit of the discussion we had with Mr and Mrs Isaacs, that we have been pursuing the matter.

As indicated in the settlement conference, Mrs Isaacs will, in our view, be unsuccessful in her legal case; the reasons are obvious and the consequence will be a cost order against her. Therefore, our client's instructions are not being pursued based on the legal case; nor are they being pursued on a basis of compensation for Derriman's actions. We are pursuing a monetary payment for what we have termed pastoral care reasons to try and help your client come to terms with Derriman's conduct and enable Mr & Mrs Isaacs to move on with their lives.

The payment we are pursuing is $30,000.00 "all up" (subject to a full release and confidentiality agreement). Any HIC refunds will be payable from the $30,000.00. We are proposing that The Church bear its own legal costs incurred to date.

We will contact you again next week and let you know how we are progressing. We aim, by Thursday 19 April 2001, to conclude the matter on this basis.

Yours faithfully
