Dear Sirs,

Re: Derryman and Isaacs.

DA

& DE

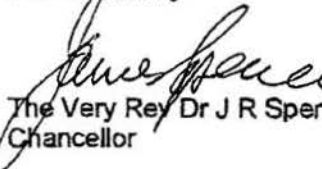

I refer to my letter of even date and to our meeting on the 20th October. You asked about my file on Derryman. I have the file of correspondence concerning his appointments. This is the Archbishop's file.

The files on the claims by DA & DE could be considered to be Archdiocesan matters, as there does not appear to be any involvement of "Towards Healing". Is it too late, or unethical, to involve "Towards Healing" now, and put our file under it's umbrella? In fact, there is nothing in either file except material that has come from the claimants, but there may be sensitive material gathered in the future.

Isaacs, of course, has proceeded under "Towards Healing".

This, I believe, is the information I was to convey to you.

Yours faithfully

The Very Rev Dr J R Spence
Chancellor
