Your Lordship,

Enclosed my letter of resignation - sorry about the confusion with my previous letter.....I need to go and do some Canon Law!!

I have tentatively booked Leo McCormack for the w/e of 18/19 for here and some weekdays either side not being sure when the new incumbent will take over, and me being due in Ararat. I will actually move to Ararat on sunday the 12th; and will be meeting with Brendan on this Tuesday (7th).

Although these last few weeks have been disrupted with funerals and getting the books/programs here ready etc, its been good time for reflection and so on.... which I hope to continue in the next place. My only uncertainty at the moment - consiedring the long term is if there are 'offerings' of other parishes as a result of the possible changes next week. Am I ineligible ??? I ask this because I am trying to work/reflect and pray in light of your encouragement to always consider myself a part of the diocese ... and if you advertise a place that's good for me ..what do i do? Anyway, that's what on my mind ... but I know you know what/where I am interested in and so on ... so I leave it with you. I left my number with Glynn where I will be next Tuesday/wed.

Thanks for your help
