Dear Ms Richards,

Thank you for your letter of October 20, 2004 attaching a schedule of questions to which [LS] and [LR] are seeking answers.

As I foreshadowed in my letter of September 30, 2004 to Mr Anthony Kerin, I have been away from the Archdiocese for some weeks, and have returned to work in the Church Office today, Tuesday, November 9.

Therefore, I have not had an opportunity to consider the questions and it is most important that they are addressed appropriately.

The nature of the questions posed by [LS] and [LR] changes the nature of the meeting I proposed, which in turn creates a need to postpone the meeting scheduled for Friday next, November 12.

I will now look to provide the answers for [LS] and [LR] in the most appropriate way. I think that this should be a response in writing. When [LS] and [LR] have considered my responses I would be pleased to have the proposed pastoral meeting then.

Yours sincerely,

+ Philip Wilson
