Claude Hamam

CLAUDE HAMMAN

Mr Hamman has resigned which is the proper course to take after he misled the Director of Catholic Education SA on procedural and administrative matters associated with the investigation into St Ann's.

POLICE CHECKS ON CURRENT STAFF AND TEACHERS

This requires a change in legislation – we simply cannot legally impose this on teachers and staff now until a new law is introduced. It's the same I believe in the government sector.

We hope that legislation is introduced by the State Government that supports the implementation of the Layton Report which will make it compulsory for schools to undertake police checks on existing staff.

“I hope the government implements legislative changes and the recommendation in the Layton Report making police checks on all teachers and staff compulsory.” Possible quote from Archbishop

NUMBER OF FAMILIES WHO HAVE ACCEPTED ARCHBISHOP'S OFFER OF A GIFT TOTALLING $2.1 M: 36 families, one declined.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

The Terms of Reference were prepared as a draft for the purposes of the proposed inquiry. At the time of instructing Mr Hayes, we were able to consolidate them into the more succinct questions which were put to him without detracting from the substance of those draft terms of reference.

MICHAEL CRITCHLEY

There are many issues arising out of the report and this is one of them. I'm looking at all aspects of the report which need to be addressed.
