Attention: Mr T Fuller

Dear Sir

Claude Haman

My client has provided me with the following documents:

1. Press release regarding enquiry into allegations of sexual abuse at St Ann's Special School.
2. Participation Agreement.
3. Terms of Reference, St Ann's Special School.

I enclose amendments to the Participation Agreement, relating to page 2, paragraphs 3 to 10, including a further paragraph with respect to my client's right of reply.

I refer to my letter to you of 23 January 2002 in which I requested that information relating to the enquiry be forwarded to me.

It is my view that to provide the above documents directly to my client amounts to harassment.

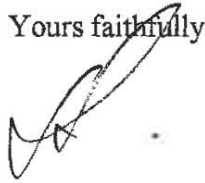

These documents were provided to him in the work place, which in and of itself is embarrassing.

I ask that any further communication or documentation in relation to the enquiry be forwarded to me. I will then take instructions from my client.

With respect to the amendments to the Participation Agreement, my client is prepared to sign the Agreement provided the amendments are agreed to.

I await your response.

Yours faithfully
