Attention: Anthony Kerin

Dear Mr Kerin,

LR [ ] & LS [ ]

I refer to your letter of July 26, 2004 to Sue Cain, the Director of Professional Standards.

I am very happy to meet with LS [ ] and LR [ ] My intention in offering to meet with them is to provide the opportunity to have a wide ranging discussion that is of a pastoral nature. Attending the meeting would be LS [ ] and LR [ ] and myself.

I wish to talk to LR [ ] and LS [ ] about the issues that deeply concern them. I want to hear from them about their son LG [ ] and any further ways I can be of support to him and to them.

I realise that LS [ ] and LR [ ] may wish to pursue legal action against the Church. That is a separate matter. My intention in offering this meeting is in no way designed to influence this issue and accordingly the meeting should be without prejudice to any legal issues. Rather I want to engage more fully at a personal level, in order to ascertain from them directly the personal issues they might wish to highlight.

If LS [ ] and LR [ ] wish to meet on this basis would you or your clients please contact my Personal Assistant, Sue Vieceli on Phone: 8210 8119 to make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Yours sincerely,

+ Philip Wilson
